

THE MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL—FRIDAY, APRIL 18, 1866.

MEMPHIS APPEAL

FRIDAY, APRIL 18, 1866.

Office—No. 13 Madison Street.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Mr. G. W. Tranchard is our authorized agent to extend the circulation of the APPEAL and to receive and forward the same in West Tennessee and the South. We beseech in his behalf the kind attention of all friends and relatives, and hope they will respond to his efforts in the power to promote the object of his mission.

HON. Hon. Frank P. Blair is in the city.

ANSWER.—This day one year ago Gen. Sherman commanded his march from Goldsboro' to Raleigh, and the "convention" with Gen. Joe Johnston which practically closed hostilities.

TELEGRAMS.—The following telegrams remain uncalled for in the office: Jno. C. Wright, J. D. Bondurant, T. H. Holt, W. H. Smith, W. H. Thompson, W. H. Hinman, J. H. Waters, Sam'l. Bradly, Patrick Durfay, Maj. W. E. Emmer.

PERSONAL.—Capt. Eugene Harris of the late C. S. A., with his wife, mother of ex-Gov. Isham G. Harris, formerly of this State, at Cordova, Mexico, has come on the steamer City of Cisco. May propositus breves with them safely to their new home.

RECORDS.—Before Recorder Covington, seven cases were tried on yesterday, six for drunkenness and one misdemeanor. The fines imposed amounted to $30, of which only $12 was collected, and thus it may come to pass that the claim will go before several courts.

PETTY ROBBERY.—The individuals, John J. Brown and Wm. W. Moore, were conveyed to castle Reilly yesterday, charged with playing the grab game for peanuts, cakes, etc., at the stand of old Mr. Curry, on the levee, where they snatched a handful of these edibles and tried to make off with the plucky old proprietor above right, the fellows were captured by the good and honest police.

CHAFFED WITH HOUSE-BREAKERS.—A man named John O'Gorman was arrested yesterday, charged by Mr. Drew with the above crime, and is lodged in Castle Reilly to await legal investigation. The negro says he is some time ago swiped some of a soldier, and subsequently sold the horse he had to Mr. O'Gorman. A day or two ago the soldier claimed the horse in Mr. Drew's possession as stolen from him, and hence the arrest.

HIGHWAY BOMBERS.—James Knowell, who shot a negro named Johnson in the mouth several days ago, and afterwards hid him in a pocket book containing money, was held yesterday, and will be arraigned on the 2d instant, before Justice of the Peace, in jail in New Orleans, and his victim returned to her heartbroken family, and we agree with our friend of the Ledger, who is responsible for the legend, in wishing he may be hung, merely for claiming to be a scoundrel.

CHLORA IN NEW ORLEANS.—Persons recently from New Orleans say the cholera is still rampant in that city, and if the statement be correct, the development there, so early in the season, of this dreadful scourge, dispels the last hope of the escape of Memphis from its ravages, and should be an additional incentive to spur up the energies of our city, and after all, the best condition possible under present circumstances.

CONCLUSION OF SIXTHES' FAIR.—Last evening witnessed the concluding entertainment of the sixteths, which have proved so highly enjoyable to a large proportion of the belles and beauties of our city, and we hope to see all share much enjoyment in reviving, on the part of the young people, a taste for the "sixteths" between now and next year.

COURT AND DISTRICT COURTS.—Court-martial eleven o'clock; the minutes of Wednesday were read and signed, and both Courts adjourned to the first day of the term.

THE thanks of the reporter are due to the gentlemanly officers of the Court, Mr. F. M. Marshall, and Messrs. Mitchell, and McRae, for their zealous and energetic attention and assistance in making up the reports of each day's proceedings during the term.
